Them Bones: Facing Death in Paris and Rome

Saturday, February 3rd, 2:00 – 3:00 PM

Now, in the dead of winter, seems as good a time as any to consider. . . Them Bones: Facing Death in Paris and Rome. Greg Williams, last here with Lizzie Borden, embarks on a macabre but light trip underground, to the Paris Catacombs; to the largest, most luminary-filled, Parisian cemetery; to a crypt decorated with them. . . well, you know; to the Roman death room of England’s greatest romantic poet; to that place best avoided on the Ides of March, and more. And this time, you choose between two endings...

Book Discussion: The Sun Also Rises

Wednesday, February 7th, 3:00 – 4:00 PM

As part of our Camino de Cotuit program, we will be reading and discussing Hemingway's The Sun Also Rises. Set in Spain, the novel visits some places along the Camino de Santiago such as the bullfights in the city of Pamplona. So join us as we discuss this classic work from Hemingway and continue down our Cotuit Pilgrimage here at the library!

Sailors’ Valentine Craft

Friday, February 9th, 1:00 – 2:00 PM

It is that time of year again to make Sailor’s Valentines! This is a must-register craft geared towards adults, but if you bring along a younger partner they are more than welcome. We will supply the shells and some patterns, you bring your enthusiasm and creativity. We look forward to seeing you here!

Valentine Making Party

Saturday, February 10th, Noon – 3:00 PM

Drop into Cotuit Library and come make some Valentines for all those special people in your life. We will provide all kinds of Valentine-making materials, you bring your creativity. Snacks will also be served, so an appetite should be brought as well!

Along the Road to Santiago de Compostela

Saturday, February 17th, 2:00 – 3:00 PM

Joyce and Tom Prince join us again at Cotuit Library to talk about some of the great places and events that once can visit on their journey along the Camino de Santiago. They will be covering some unique topics from Gaudi to prehistoric cave paintings, San Fermin, the Knights Templar and many more. Come and learn some more interesting things about this great European pilgrimage at this Camino de Cotuit program!

Jazz in the Art Class

Tuesday, February 20th, 2:00 – 3:00 PM

Robin J. Miller is a retired NYC teacher, artist, author, poet and public speaker. This slideshow highlights the history of jazz and the relationship that several master artists have with this style of music, including Faith Ringgold, Henri Matisse, William H. Johnson, Pablo Picasso, Jackson Pollock and Romare Bearden. Visual imagery, poetry and a jazz performance on film create an exciting experience for the audience.

This presentation is part of our Royston Nash Music Appreciation Series, supported in part by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, the Mid Cape Cultural Council, and the Kirkman Trust.

C3: Cotuit Coding Camp

Tuesday, February 20th through Friday, February 23rd, 10:00 – 11:00 AM

Want your kids to know the basic fundamentals of computer science and the digital world but don’t know where to start? Bring them to the Cotuit Coding Camp during February Vacation! Children ages 5-9 will learn computer science and coding basics from algorithms to sequencing using hands on activities, crafts, games, and robots. Don’t miss out on this great educational opportunity!

C3 is supported in part by the Friends of the Cotuit Library.

Scallop Shell Craft

Friday, February 23rd, 3:00 – 4:00 PM

As part of our Camino de Cotuit program, we will be doing a Scallop Shell Craft! The scallop shell is the official symbol of the Camino de Santiago, so come customize your very own as a part of your own personal pilgrimage.

An Introduction to Walking the Camino de Santiago

Saturday, February 24th, 2:00 – 3:00 PM

Come to Cotuit Library for a presentation by Thomas Raftery about walking the Camino de Santiago. He will focus more on the technical hiking aspects of the journey and how one can get prepared and keep well while on the road. If you have ever considered walking the Camino de Santiago, or just want to learn more about this age-old pilgrimage, join us at the library for this presentation!

Library Tech Class - Gmail

Wednesday, February 28th, 1:00 – 2:00 PM

Cotuit Library is now doing in-house tech classes on the last Wednesday of every month, 1:00 – 2:00 PM. This month we will be discussing the basic know-how’s of Google’s emailing platform, Gmail. We request that you bring your own personal devices to practice on, but laptops are available for use at the library for those who need them.

Registration is required for attendance; maximum of 8 people per class.

Movie: Soundtrack for a Revolution

Wednesday, February 28th, 3:00 – 5:00 PM

“Bill Guttentag's documentary examines the importance of music during the U.S. civil rights movement that took place during the 1950s and '60s. The various sit-ins and public demonstrations of the era incorporated protest songs, folk tunes and spirituals, music that was a crucial part of the movement. Guttentag uses archival footage and interviews to connect specific songs (covered by artists including the Roots and John Legend) to specific events, such as the Montgomery bus boycott.” (www.google.com)

This movie presentation is part of our Royston Nash Music Appreciation Series, supported in part by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, the Mid Cape Cultural Council, and the Kirkman Trust.
