Wintertide Read & Ramble 2019: Pathways of Peru

January 9th - March 8th

For this year's Wintertide Read and Ramble, Cotuit Library is setting its gaze southward with Pathways of Peru. Register to walk a set number of miles, read a set number of books, or both between January 9 and March 10. Along the way we'll have programming revolving around Peru's history, Machu Picchu, and more, all capped off with a banquet on the last day! In addition, each program a registered participant attends earns a raffle ticket for a prize to be drawn at the banquet. Mark your progress on our route map, and encourage your friends and family to participate from a distance with you through our website and online activities!

Registration is $20 for adults (18+) and $10 for children (each additional child in a family is only $5). Registration packets with logs, maps, thematic reading suggestions and more are available at the Library. Patrons who do not wish to participate themselves are invited to donate funds to sponsor another walker/reader. For more information, call the Library at 508-428-8141 or cotuitlibrary.org

Peruvian Ponderings from 1981 and 2018 with Kathy Spirtes

Saturday, January 19th @ 2:00 PM

Kathy Spirtes traveled to Peru in 1981 on a three week adventure that included seeing Machu Picchu, the Nazca Lines, Colca Canyon, Lake Titicaca and several ruins in the Cuzco area. She returned to Peru in 2018 for a four day trek in the Lares Region. The major difference between the two trips was the interactions with local people. The 1981 trip was led by a British guide and the 2018 trip was led by several Quechua (Inca descendants) guides. During the Lares trek she met a number of Quechua people in their homes or along the trail, even spending a night in a family home along the trail. She is amazed that at 64 she did a much more strenuous as they hiked over two 14,000 foot passes. Kathy pondered and is still pondering who 28 year-old Kathy was back in 1981 and how she now relates to the 64 year-old who went to Peru in 2018.

Film: The Motorcycle Diaries

Wednesday, January 23rd @ 4:00 PM

As part of our Pathways of Peru programming, we will be viewing the movie The Motorcycle Diaries:

"On a break before his last semester of medical school, Ernesto "Che" Guevara (Gael García Bernal) travels with his friend Alberto Granado (Rodrigo De la Serna) from Brazil to Peru by motorcycle. The two men soon witness the great disparities in South America, encountering poor peasants and observing the exploitation of labor by wealthy industrialists. When they reach a leper colony in Peru, Ernesto's values have changed so much that he sides with the sufferers, forgetting his own comfort."

This movie is rated R.

Sgraffito Tile Workshop with Maureen Carven

Thursday, January 24th @ 1:00 PM

Local artist Maureen Carven will be running a Sgraffito Tile Workshop here at Cotuit Library. Sgraffito is a form of decoration made by scratching through a surface to reveal a lower layer of a contrasting color, typically done in plaster or stucco on walls, or in slip on ceramics before firing. For this workshop, Maureen will provide tiles for all to scratch and design however you want. Maureen will then take them home and fire them up to be returned to all participants. Limit 12 people.
