West African Kora

Saturday, October 6th @ 2:00 PM

Sean Gaskell will give a performance and educational demonstration on the kora, an ancient 21-stringed harp from West Africa. He will feature traditional songs that are the heart and soul of the kora's musical repertoire in addition to some of his own personal compositions.

This show is part of our Royston Nash Music Appreciation Series, supported in part by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, the Mid Cape Cultural Council, and the Kirkman Trust.

Words & Wine with George Michelson Foy

Saturday, October 6th @ 5:00 PM

Join us for an evening of Words and Wine, a fundraiser for the Cotuit Library, featuring author George Michelson Foy. Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at the Cotuit Library or online at cotuitlibrary.org. The event will take place at 144 Pinquickset Cove Circle, Cotuit, and refreshments will be served. Due to limited seating, tickets must be purchased in advance. George Michelson Foy is an award-winning author, essayist, professor of creative writing and former mariner. His latest book is Run the Storm, an account of the mysterious disappearance of the SS El Faro in 2015.

Friends' Annual Fall Fashion Show

Wednesday, October 10th @ 11:00 AM

Please join us for our Annual Fall Fashion Show Luncheon at the Hyannisport Club.

Cash Bar 11:00 AM, Luncheon at Noon. $45.00 per person, includes Raffle & Silent Auction

You can make your reservations at the library, or you can reserve online at www.cotuitlibrary.org/friends-events--calendar. Paid reservations must be received by September 28. Only 160 seats available. No walk-ins. No refunds for cancellations after October 5.

Stargazing at Lowell Park

Wednesday, October 10th @ 6:30 PM

Join the folks from Cotuit Library as we turn our gazes skyward towards the stars! This is the first of several stargazing events we'll be holding for the summer months, and Cotuit Library has everything you need to participate! We have the telescopes, just bring yourself and your minds full of wonderment! (although all telescopes will be welcome!).

The rain date for this event is Thursday, October 11th @ 6:30 PM.

Casual Magic

Friday, October 12th @ 5:00 PM

It's an evening for geeks and goblins at Cotuit Library, because we will be playing Magic: the Gathering, the popular trading card game by Wizards of the Coast. Never played before, or are a little rusty? No worries! We'll have a little introductory crash-course, and also provide pre-made decks for you to practice with. Cards are also available for players to come and make a deck for themselves in they need one. If you're a seasoned player, bring your cards and join in the fun! All are welcome. Pizza and drinks will also be provided to participants.

Archaeology with Craig Chartier

Saturday, October 13th @ 2:00 PM

Local archaeologist Craig Chartier joins us again for another talk this year for Archaeology Month. Craig works on many projects and will be sharing lots of information on the work that he does here in Massachusetts. Come learn about the cool archaeological things happen nearby!

Dueling Dulcimers

Tuesday, October 16th @ 4:00 PM

Come see the musical battle of the year between Cotuit's own Kathy Spirtes on the hammered dulcimer, and former library director Jennie Wiley on the mountain dulcimer. Get a taste of these two instruments with their similarities and differences at Cotuit Library.

This show is part of our Royston Nash Music Appreciation Series, supported in part by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, the Mid Cape Cultural Council, and the Kirkman Trust.

Oyster Farming and Climate Change

Wednesday, October 17 @ 6:00 PM

Join us for a research presentation and community discussion about oyster farming and climate change in Barnstable. Ariana Gunderson, Cotuit resident and Boston University graduate student, spent this summer interviewing oyster farmers, government officials, and non-profits about oysters and climate change in our town. Join us to hear what she found and share your own thoughts on sustainable oyster farming.

A Weekend of Halloween

Saturday, October 20th @ 10:30 AM

Cotuit Library is turning up the terror with a Weekend of Halloween! Stop in and participate in our Scarecrow Making Contest, where we provide you with all the building materials you need; you just need to bring the clothes! Then we'll display the scarecrows on our front lawn for a week to let people vote for their favorite. The winners will be announced Saturday, October 27th, and prizes can be claimed during library hours.

And while you're here for the scarecrows, venture into the depths of the library and experience our Haunted Stacks, a spook walk of our own devising not for the faint of heart. But fear not, there will be a sweet treat waiting for you at the end. So come on down and join us for a weekend of scary fun!

JFK in Ireland

Saturday, October 20th @ 2:00 PM

Irish historian Sean Murphy will give a talk featuring video of the ancestral Kennedy homesteads and footage of JFK's visit in Ireland in June of 1963, including excerpts from his speeches while there. The presentation includes his favorite song "The Boys of Wexford", a song about the heroism of the Wexford people who rose against the British in the 1798 Rebellion.

Day of the Dead with Joyce Prince

Saturday, October 27th @ 2:00 PM

Join us at Cotuit Library as Joyce Prince speaks about the origins of Mexico's Dia de los Muertos, or the Day of the Dead. This talk will include look at the holiday's development, including Jose Posada, symbols, importance of tradition, misconceptions, and the importance of family ties in Mexican culture.

Music Streaming Class

Wednesday, October 31st @ 2:00 PM

Cotuit Library is now doing in-house tech classes on the last Wednesday of every month. This month we will be discussing the pros and cons of different music streaming services, such as Spotify, Pandora, and iTunes, both paid and free versions. We request that you bring your own personal devices to practice on, but laptops are available for use at the library for those who need them.
